

BPL poses the largest threat to radio interference in the amateur and fire department emergency communications frequencies. It must not be allowed until much more testings are done.